

Confirmation Service Hours

Requirement: 10 Hours each year

Any service that reflects Jesus' love is "Christian service."

The Bible gives some specific examples of Christian service: show hospitality to strangers (Hebrews 13:2), remember those in prison (Matthew 25:36), provide for the needy (Matthew 25:35), and mentor others (Titus 2:2-8). Some examples speak to our day-to-day living: care for children (Matthew 18:5), tend families (Titus 2:5), treat employees fairly (Colossians 4:1), deal honestly with customers (Leviticus 19:36), and be diligent with employers' resources (Matthew 25:14-30). As long as the act is done "in Jesus' name"—that is, it is motivated by the love of Jesus—it is Christian service.

In Easton we have the Food Pantry (collect for it or volunteer there), My Brothers Keeper Christmas wrapping and delivery, service at Holy Cross or Immaculate Conception, volunteering at the schools. Plenty of opportunities to share your gifts!
